

AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE EXPORTS

AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE EXPORTS

This month ADM will introduce a new feature: Australian Defence Exports. This feature will cover the growth of Australian defence exports, cover the success stories of Australian companies on the global stage, and examine the Australian defence sector's progress towards joining the global top ten exporters.

AIRPOWER 2022

This month ADM will also return our annual feature on airpower in Australia and the Indo-Pacific. We will look into the RAAF's current and future fleet, provide insights into the role of airpower in Australia's strategic circumstances, and look to the growth of airpower in the region as geopolitical tensions simmer. This regular feature is not to be missed!

DEFENCE IN THE NORTH

Finally, this edition will include our annual feature on Defence in the North, covering infrastructure, maritime patrol and sustainment, as well as Australia's role in the region. This edition will be distributed at our Northern Australia Defence Summit on 5 April in Darwin.
