JP2060 PHASE 4 - ADF HEALTH KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT SOLUTION - INDUSTRY BRIEFING

JSD/IB/7786/1
31 OCT

- Notice - Capability Acquisition and Sustainment Group

The Department of Defence will provide a brief to industry on the approach to market for JP2060 Phase 4, for the acquisition and sustainment of a Health Knowledge Management (HKM) solution. The aim of JP2060 Phase 4 is to deliver a HKM solution to provide readily accessible health knowledge including patient clinical information to support timely, efficient and effective health care, in connected and disconnected, non-deployed and deployed contexts.

The brief will be presented at the Adams Auditorium (Building 111), ADFA in Canberra from 09:00 - 11:00 on Thursday 11 October 2018. The purpose of the brief is to provide industry attendees with an overview of the project scope, explain the findings from the recent Request for Information conducted by Defence in Q1 2018 (CASG/JSD/RFI0059/18) and provide detail on Defence's proposed acquisition and sustainment strategy for the HKM capability.

The Industry Brief is being provided as a precursor to an upcoming Request for Tender, proposed for release in Quarter 1 of 2019. It is intended to provide up-to-date information to industry on the project and to ensure all opportunities for engagement are explored.

The brief will be unclassified. Defence welcomes questions from industry respondents after the industry brief.

LAND 500PH1 - FIELD PUSH-TO-TALK TRAINING SYSTEM

JSD/RFT/7807/19 NOV- Request for Tender - Capability Acquisition and Sustainment Group*

The Department of Defence invites tenders to provide the Land 500 Phase 1 (LND500PH1) Field Push-to-Talk (PTT) Training System.

LND500PH1 was initiated to remediate a subset of Australian Army Electronic Warfare (EW) training capabilities.

The Australian Army seeks to further enhance training for EW operators against Signals of Interest (SOI), emitters and radio networks in a field Push-to-Talk (PTT) training environment. The enhancement to training is expected to provide the ability to script and to simulate a broad range of Electromagnetic Spectrum (EMS) emitters, including Citizen Band (CB), Combat Net Radios (CNR) and other commercial emitters in a field training environment to enable Army EW operators to identify and direction find such emitters.

The PTT training system is expected to include a networked PTT training system that comprises of a control station, signal emitters and a connection to a signals library, which will provide an environment that allows operators to train against scripted scenarios. The final solution is expected to enable repeatable scenario based training.
